

Things you need to know about Rochester NY

Rochester NY is located in Monroe County. Second only to New York City, it is the second largest economy in the state. It is the center of Monroe County which also includes Livingston, Orleans, Genesee, Ontario and Wayne counties and it is the third largest city in New York. It is also called the Flower City or The Worlds Image Center. It is also known as the city of neighborhoods, having 36 neighborhoods with each having their own characteristics that are unique from the others. There is the residential tree lined avenues of Maplewood if you love the serenity of nature. You will love the South Wedge Business district if you are more of the eclectic type. Then there is Browncroft if gracious homes are what you are looking for. According to Places Rated Almanac, it is the 6th Most Livable Cities among the 379 metropolitan areas. In 2007, it took the number 6 spot for best metropolitan public schools nationwide and the top spot for quality of life given by the Expansion Management Magazine. Rochester ny is considered to be one of the best places to live in because of its available to all wide range of resources. Whether for a single person or for a family, the city has everything one will need, from the most beautiful architecture, parks, business center and cultural centers.

When it comes to city employment, the city has around 3500 people in different jobs. The city boasts of having competitive pay, opportunities for advancement and comprehensive benefits for its employees. The city is also very supportive of its local large and small businesses. Assistance to businesses in the city as well as for those who want to relocate to the city is provided by its Economic Development Department.

Rochester NY also offers wide range of entertainment and recreational opportunities. There are always free concerts and other celebrations. The Garth Fagan Dance Troupe which performs around the city for various occasions calls the city its home. There is also the Rochester City Ballet and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra for those who love the arts. Since the city takes a deep pride in its history, you will find the history of Rochester in its architecture and in its museums. Of course there are other works of art showcased in other museums, such as the unique collections of the George Eastman House and the dolls at the Chili Doll Hospital and Victorian Doll Museum. And for those who love sports, there are the usual indoor and outdoor sports. There are also cycling, mountain climbing and running clubs. Of course boating on Lake Ontario, the Fingers Lake, the Genesee River and the Erie Canal are something you can always enjoy. Similar articles Rochester new york -- Rochester --

About the Author

Find more related to rochester, visit RocVille.com.

Source: <http://searchpayout.com>