

Bridal Shower Invitation Cards: The Curtain Raiser

The Wedding Day is a landmark event in anybody's life and it all starts with the bridal Shower invitation card. Like any message, the first impression carried is usually the last impression; hence invitation cards must be carefully designed and written. The look of the invitation card must convey your innate personality while the written prose serves only to reinforce that impression. The look of the card can be minimalist or extravagant depending on the sort of person you are. However, too gaudy a look may end up giving an impression of being gauche and as a desperate attempt to show to the world that you have arrived. An elegant card, which is neither too simple nor overly expensive gives the best optimum impression about your wedding.

What is written on the card also makes an impression, which can be formal or informal. Too casual a prose can give an impression of being flippant and may not be the best idea. A formal prose on the other hand adds dignity to the occasion.

The information provided on the Bridal Shower Invitation card must be complete so that the prospective guests are not left guessing or going around on a treasure hunt to locate the venue. The information must also contain the correct names of the couple, time date and location. Should the wedding party be a theme party, be sure to mention it in the invitation card. An RSVP along with a telephone number helps the guests as they can communicate to you whether they would be attending the party or not. A telephone number can at times be a real life saver for those frantic guests lost in unfamiliar surroundings and desperately looking for direction to the wedding venue.

There is bound to be your kind of bridal shower invitation cards that fits your pocket too. There are formal cards, funky cards, bling bling cards and cards with naughty messages which can make even the most staid brides blush. Ready to print online samples are also available which can be printed directly by the clients using their home printers. Along with the bridal shower invitation cards, agencies sell other wedding paraphernalia such as decorations, wedding cake, catering, venue for hire and a wedding planner thrown in for good measure. So a one shop stop may well be the best answer for a hassle free wedding and help you save costs.
